Highway to Take Over 11 Miles in Hempstead

Two Hempstead County roads have been added to the Arkansas Highway Department in keeping with the authorization of the Legislature in its last session, Walter E. Hicks, district engineer announced.

The two roads total 11.3 miles. The first starts at the Nevada County line and ends at the junction with Highway 4, two miles east of its junction with Highway 67. This is known as the Shover Springs road. The distance is 7.25 miles.

The second starts at the junction with Highway 29 and ends at the junction north and south county road east of Patmos, a distance of .06 miles. This will connect Patmos with Highway 29.

A department engineering party under R. V. Wilkinson with the Highway office in Hope will establish right-of-way stakes for widths required. Local interests must remove all man made obstructions such as fences, houses in the right-of-way limit.

When this is done the Highway Department will make necessary bridges, culvert and drainage repairs, replace sections of gravel and in general will place the section in condition comparable with roads in the present secondary system. When completed the Highway Department will assign road numbers and maintain. The Department urges residents along the route to call attention to possible line improvements when the survey begins.

Final Victory for Hoffa Is Nearer

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—James R. Hoffa, supported by a majority of Teamsters convention delegates in his fight against accusations of union corruption, drove today toward an apparently certain victory as president of the giant union.

His election would mean an almost sure ouster of the Teamsters from the AFL-CIO.

Further court tests of charges that delegates to the Teamsters convention here were "rigged" in favor of Hoffa lie ahead before the Midwest Teamsters' boss can step into the shoes of retiring President Dave Beck Dec. 1.

Teamster delegates showed little disposition to attach significance to the AFL-CIO expulsion threat. In a tumultuous session yesterday, they gave Hoffa a clean bill of health by angrily voting to exchange the corruption charges from the convention record.

On the other hand, Hoffa forces in firm control of the convention, eyed the coming court action more cautiously. They denied conviction seats to 261 delegates whose credentials have been questioned.

Miss Rodeo Is a Russellville Girl

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Marion Benson of Russellville is the new Miss Arkansas Rodeo.

The blonde beauty's victory over four other contestants was announced at last night's rodeo performance at the Arkansas Livestock Exposition.

Gov. Orval Faubus paid a surprise visit to the rodeo and awarded Arkansas Traveler Certificates to Gene Autry and Gail Davis—the "Annie Oakley" of television. Both stars are appearing in rodeo performances.

Miss Benson succeeds 1956 rodeo queen George Ann Smithers of Benton.

The winner was selected in competition with Suzanne Donohoe of Fordyce, Jimmie Shores of Little Rock, Charlene Rigges of Fayetteville and Shirley Smith of North Little Rock.

Miss Benson now will become a candidate in the Grand National Livestock Exposition and Rodeo at San Francisco Nov. 1-10.

The 6-day Livestock Exposition will end Saturday.

Snake Kills Scientist Who Leaves Record

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Tribune said today that Dr. Karl P. Schmidt, internationally known snake expert who died less than 24 hours after being bitten by a snake, made a detailed scientific record of the effect of the poison from the reptile.

The Tribune, which obtained the death diary, termed it one of the most unusual documents in medical history. It also said it learned a coroner's physician's findings will show Dr. Schmidt's death was caused by three cerebral hemorrhages directly attributable to the venom of the boomslang, or tree snake native to South Africa.

Dr. Schmidt, 67, who was curator emeritus of the Chicago Natural History Museum, was bitten Sept. 25 as he was examining the snake. He died less than 24 hours later.

His death account, the Tribune said, began with a description of the snake, its examination and a statement that he concluded it was boomslang because of its characteristic behavior when it bit him on the left thumb.

The Tribune said Dr. Schmidt's associates said he made the record with no foreboding by death. He and others at the examination felt he had not gotten a lethal dose from the bite. His associates suggested that he make the record of symptoms that might develop.

"We believed the bite to be minor and without danger," said one associate. "It was from a young snake that had been in captivity for some time. Snakes tend to lose quantity and toxic quality in venom when in captivity."

He said Dr. Schmidt did not consider an antivenom serum because "at no time were the reactions apparently serious."

The Tribune said the diary covered a 15-hour period from the time he boarded a suburban train on the day he was bitten until the next morning. Associates said he believed he had recovered and was planning to return to work.

The last entry was made after breakfast Sept. 28. Associates said Dr. Schmidt apparently made no further entries because he was up and around later in the morning and had notified the museum "he would be back at work the next day. Unattended by a physician, he went into a coma at 2 p. m."

An inhalator squad was called, and worked to no avail. He was taken to a hospital. The coroner's record gives 3:15 p. m. as the time of death upon arrival at the hospital.

Hopes $25,000 Film Will Prove It Can Be Done

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Hollywood may be dismayed to learn that an ex-odessa jerk here has made a full length movie for only $25,000.

"As a matter of fact it cost me only $9,000 to turn out the film itself," said Everett Chambers.

"The rest went for music, sound, and other expenses."

The film "A Run Across the River" is the culmination of a four-year dream and a long uphill fight for its 31-year-old producer, who has a crew and looks like an Ivy League college instructor. A spy chase melodrama, filmed in semi-documentary style and featuring Greenwich Village backgrounds, it is now being shown to exhibitors.

"I don't expect it to rival 'Gone With the Wind,'" said Chambers cheerfully. "But I think it's a pretty fair 'B' grade picture—at least as good as 'I Was a Teen-Age Werewolf'."

Behind his unusual effort is an unusual story.

Chambers, a native of Los Angeles, came here in 1949 and got a $32 a week job dishing up sandwiches in a midtown ice cream parlor. He also met and married there a hostess named Joan.

After a few acting jobs, Chambers worked his way up to a post as one of TV's top casting directors. But he saw the handwriting on the wall when live TV shows began to be replaced by film productions.

Chambers decided he had to change with the times.

Balloon With No Air Will Go Into Space

WASHINGTON (AP)—A balloon without air will be one of the American moons whirling through space.

Lack of air will prevent it from acting like a jet rocket and going off course if it gets punctured by a meteorite.

Blow up an ordinary balloon, let go of it suddenly by its neck, and you get the idea. Air escaping through the open neck exerts equal pressure on the inside and the balloon goes skittering across the room. That's the jet principle.

This can't happen to our space balloon because there won't be any gas pressure inside it which can rush out after a shooting star punctures it. It won't go pop either.

Details of this hollow balloon moon were described today at a special conference of the International Geophysical Year by William J. O'Sullivan, Jr., of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics.

The balloon will be made of ultrathin plastic film and aluminum foil. Compactly folded, it will be fitted into the top of a moon-launching rocket.

Some 300 miles above the earth, the rocket releases a metal moon for studies of magnetism. It also pushes out the folded balloon and trips a little tank to inflate it with compressed nitrogen gas.

For a while, the balloon may follow closely the heavier but smaller metal moon. Then drag or resistance from even the very thin air in space will slow it down.

Careful observations of how much and how quickly it slows down and spirals to earth will give invaluable clues to the density of air 300 to 1,500 miles out in space.

Schoolmasters Meet at Local School Today

Southwest Arkansas Schoolmasters meet today at Hope High School with an administration study session starting at 5:30 p. m.

Group 2, led by Bob Cole of Magnolia, will discuss personal policies. Representatives will be Dr. Roy B. Allen, UA, Southern State staff member.

Dinner will be held at 6:45 in the school cafeteria. This will be followed by a table discussion with R. M. Roelfs as moderator.

31 to Compete in Cotton Contest

BLITHEVILLE (AP)—Thirty-one girls will compete in a beauty pageant here today in the opening day highlight of the National Cotton Picking Contest.

Seventeen of the girls are from Arkansas.

The 2-day event is scheduled to start at 4 p. m. with a parade through downtown Blitheville. The beauty contest will follow, and a horse show is planned for tomorrow evening.

Cotton pickers will vie for $2,500 in prizes tomorrow afternoon. The first place winner will get $1,000.

Apparently a scheduled cotton picking contest between five Southern governors will not materialize because of a lack of contestants.

Gov. Orval Faubus had challenged Govs. J. P. Coleman of Mississippi, Earl Long of Louisiana, James T. Blair Jr., of Missouri, and Frank Clement of Tennessee.

But Faubus told contest officials that his appearance would hinge on "developments" in the Little Rock racial controversy.

Coleman recovering from recent minor surgery, said in a letter that he did not believe he could make it. Clement also sent a letter in which he said he would be unable to attend because of the pressure of business.

Both Long and Blair have accepted the challenge.

Korean Boy Killed by U. S. Soldier

SEOUL (AP)—A U. S. Army train guard shot and killed a 15-year-old Korean boy today at Kumchon. The newspaper Chosun Ilbo immediately branded the incident "a barbarous action" and said several hundred Koreans had demonstrated demanding the guard be turned over.

The Army identified him as Specialist 3-C Raymond L. Bailey (Route 1) Brownsburg, Ind.

It said Song Joong Won was one of several youths found tampering with the door of a sidetracked boxcar. Bailey ordered them to halt, fired in the air, then at the ground near the fleeing youths, hitting Song. The youth died in a hospital 90 minutes later.

The newspaper said: Six slugs were passing by about 20 yards from the boxcar and didn't hear Bailey shouting. They continued to walk until Song was shot.

"As news of the incident spread among Kumchon citizens," the paper continued, "hundreds of Koreans as well as bereaved family members swarmed around the station demanding the soldier be handed over to them."

For sometime, the paper stated, "the excited, shouting crowd created a tense atmosphere. Korean national police protected the soldier until handed over to American military investigators flown into the scene in helicopters."

Another newspaper, Dong A Ilbo, reported police described the crowd after the situation became "threatening."

There was no immediate comment about this from the Army.

12 Indictments in Kentucky Police Dept.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A series of newspaper articles, exposing alleged irregularities in the Jefferson County police force brought indictments against 12 persons—including the write of the articles—yesterday.

The Jefferson County grand jury indicted the writer's chief editor, a former police chief and four suspended officers.

Barry Bingham, president of the Louisville Courier-Journal and Louisville Times, called charges of knowingly receiving stolen property against his two employees fantastic.

The jury indicted writer Hank Massick and city editor John Herchenroeder, accusing them of having in their possession a receipt allegedly stolen from former Police Chief Walter R. Layman.

Photographs of the receipts appeared in the Courier-Journal with the first of a series of articles by Massick, charging Layman "paid off" robbery-assault victim to avoid possible criminal prosecution against his son Walter R. Layman Jr. The chief resigned the next day.

Some Students Leave School; Ike Will Keep Troops in Little Rock

Faubus Doing Disservice to State, Ike Says

By ROBERT E. CLARK

WASHINGTON (INS)—President Eisenhower said today he will not withdraw U. S. troops from Little Rock until he has unequivocal assurances that federal court orders will not be obstructed and that law and order will be maintained.

He said Gov. Orval Faubus of Arkansas is doing a disservice to Little Rock and to his state by his position.

Mr. Eisenhower said prospects for working out an agreement with the Governor which would permit withdrawal of federal troops are not completely hopeless. He indicated, however, that he holds little hope at this time for reaching any accord with Faubus.

The President noted that Army troops could be pulled out of Little Rock if the local police were able to control the situation, providing the assurances of peaceful compliance of court-ordered integration.

He only mentioned this, however, and gave no indication that he looks on such a development as a logical step at this time.

The President discussed the Little Rock crisis in grave and solemn tones at his first news conference since the integration dispute exploded a month ago.

He parried a question on whether he would use federal troops to enforce school integration if a similar situation developed in another southern city.

He couldn't answer such a hypothetical question, Mr. Eisenhower said, because each case is different.

In Little Rock, he pointed out, there was open defiance of the federal courts. The courts must be sustained or it is not America, he added.

The President held open the possibility that he might meet again with Faubus, but made it clear he has little enthusiasm for such a get-together in view of the outcome of their previous meeting.

Mr. Eisenhower said he would be willing to do a lot to bring back respect for the law and to clear the national scene of the Little Rock controversy.

The President shed some additional light on his reasons for rejecting the assurances given by Faubus which it appeared for a time Tuesday would bring withdrawal of federal troops from Little Rock.

Rockefeller Stays Silent on Situation

By SY RAMSY

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The silence of Winthrop Rockefeller in the integration crisis here seems to indicate that the oil millionaire who adopted Arkansas as his home is opposed to the policies of his friend Gov. Orval Faubus.

For the record, the 45-year-old Rockefeller has said nothing so far. His lack answer when asked for comment: "I have no statement to add to an already bad situation."

But at his palatial home on a huge farm atop a mountain near Morrilton, in central Arkansas, Rockefeller has listened carefully to the conflicting and desperate pleas of close friends.

Some have urged him to come out fighting and brand Faubus as a politician who has set the clock back in Arkansas for decades. They want him to resign as chairman of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission, a gesture which they hope would rally many silent moderates and which might dramatize the schism of thinking in Arkansas.

Other advisers have urged Rockefeller just as strongly to maintain his discreet silence. They say that denouncing Faubus would not help the tensebox racial picture, and that in view of Rockefeller's short (four years) residence in Arkansas he could be easily labeled as a Yankee meddler.

It was not always so. Former Gov. Francis Cherry said, two years ago: "The people of Arkansas wish Winthrop Rockefeller had been born quintuplets. We haven't many rich people in this state but we have plenty rich enough to do the things Winthrop has done. The difference is that he does them."

And Faubus, the man who gained a stunning victory over Cherry a year previous, found Rockefeller a welcome ally for his political and economic plans in the state—until Faubus called out the National Guard Sept. 2 to block integration at Central High School.

The governor and Rockefeller have worked closely on matters of benefit to both of them.

Second Trial for Confidential

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—A second trial is going to be held in the Confidential Magazine criminal libel conspiracy case.

The sensational first trial ended in a mistrial Tuesday night, with the jury hopelessly deadlocked, 7 to 5, for conviction.

A decision to try it again was reached yesterday at Monterey conference between Staff Attorney General Edmund G. Brown and District Attorney William B. McKesson.

Tries to Smoke Out Russia on Arms Intent

WASHINGTON (UP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles will attempt to smoke out Soviet intentions on disarmament and the Middle East when he confers with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

Administration officials said today the two topics head the list of world issues expected to come up at the Dulles-Gromyko meeting.

The State Department announced Wednesday night Dulles had invited Gromyko to come to Washington Saturday afternoon for an "exchange of views" on various international issues of concern to both the United States and the USSR.

The meeting will be held at Dulles' home on the edge of mansion-lined Rock Creek Park. An aide said Dulles "likes to stay home and work on Saturdays" so he decided to have the four Russian visit him there.

State Department officials said no international emergency prompted Dulles' invitation. They also said Dulles does not have any new disarmament or Middle East peace plans to propose to Gromyko.

Apparently Mass Walkout Fails to Materialize

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—About 75 white students walked out of Central High School classes today in what was scheduled as a mass protest against racial integration within the school.

The white boys and girls began struggling from the main entrance of the building within moments after the 9 a. m. change-of-classes bell rang.

They walked quietly across the campus and massed on the curbside across from the building.

There they called to other students peering from the windows and doorways to join them.

"Come on, you chickens," the demonstrating students shouted.

"Dirty chickens," they yelled.

The students reportedly had been threatened with suspension if they took part in the demonstration. One brunette girl ran from the building and joined the demonstrating group. Almost in tears, she said:

"I couldn't get anyone else. They won't come out. I am so ashamed I could scream."

Another girl said many of her fellow students assured her, "We'll go. We'll go." But then they refused to walk out on the sign.

The first student demonstrator out of the school identified himself as Bill Davis, an 18-year-old senior.

Some of the demonstrating girls said the presence of the principal, standing inside the main entrance, discouraged many of the white students from leaving.

The same girls said their own parents had supported their plan to join the walkout.

The teen-agers said their parents had told them that if enough joined the walkout it would be impossible to discipline them. They conceded the demonstration was a failure and that they probably would be punished.</

Negro Youths Stab White Boy in N. J.

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP)—A 15-year-old schoolboy who told police he was stabbed and slashed by a group of Negro youths was reported in satisfactory condition today. Michael Petrilli was admitted to Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital yesterday for treatment of a six-inch slash on the left side of his chest, a stab wound on the right side, and lesser cuts on the scalp and back.

He told investigators he was watching a junior high school football game when he noticed a white boy being abused by about half a dozen Negro youths. He said he suffered the knife wounds in a brief encounter with the group after going to the assistance of the unidentified youth. The assailants fled, he said, and a passing motorist brought him to the hospital.

Later in the day, four boys were picked up and slated on a charge of atrocious assault and battery. Two were 15 and two were 16. All were residents of Camden.

Police officials in Camden and across the Delaware River in Philadelphia, have ordered strict enforcement of a 10 p.m. curfew law for youngsters after recent indication of racial unrest among teenagers in the area. Three incidents of stabbings and

Florida Sets Up Bill to Close Schools

By United Press

New Links were added today to the Deep South's chain of reaction against use of federal troops in the Little Rock integration dispute. The Florida Senate, stirred up by President Eisenhower's refusal to remove federal troops from Little Rock, passed a bill to permit the closing of public schools faced with racial integration.

The so-called "last resort" segregation bill was approved by a 31-5 vote.

The bill, strongly opposed by Gov. Leroy Collins, was sent immediately to the House, where sponsors believed they held sufficient strength to pass it.

Republican National Committee man F. O. Spencer, the man who led the Mississippi campaign for President Eisenhower's re-election, stopped down and predicted the entire GOP organization in Mississippi would crumble.

In South Carolina, State Sen. James Hugh McFadden of Clarendon County, originating point for one of the cases that led to the 1954 Supreme Court desegregation decision, urged that all draft street fights in the vicinity of several high schools have been reported.

boards in South Carolina resigned. The president of the University of South Carolina, former Assistant Secretary of State Donald S. Russell, said in a speech Tuesday night that "the South deserves not bayonets and demagogic denunciations but sympathy and understanding and patience and an open mind."

Former South Carolina Gov. James F. Byrnes said he has received more mail from the North than from the South praising a speech he made last week attacking the use of federal troops at Little Rock.

An Alabama businessman said he intended to collect all the "I Like Ike" buttons he can find and mail them to the commanding officer of the 101st Airborne Division, which moved into Little Rock at the President's order.

"It doesn't make itself felt," he said, "but you can win more of a reputation by turning out one feature length picture, good or bad, than you can by producing any number of good hour-long TV shows."

Chambers persuaded a friend, Lee Gillen, 23, to write a movie script (this first one) for the promise of a share of the profits, if any. He got a dozen actors to take roles on the same basis. The same with the cameraman.

But he still had to have some cash. He would put up any real money for such a shoestring answer. The answer was easy. Nobody. Chambers, in a blue funk, was about to abandon the project when his wife suggested:

"Why don't we call up everybody we know, and ask them to put in $200 each? That will appeal to everybody and nobody can get hurt bad."

"We got on the phone at once," said Chambers, "and in two weeks raised $6,000. Then a friend in the garment industry chipped in $7,500—and we were off."

Among Chambers' backers are his mother, his doctor, an usher, sis Chapter one. The business meeting was held and the new officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Roy Cagle; vice-president, Mrs. John Norvel; secretary - treasurer, Mrs. Esther Ward; assistant secretary, Mrs. Evelyn Story; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Benny Orr; teacher, Rev. Bill Moore; assistant teacher, Mrs. L. C. Kennedy; gift and flower committee, Mrs. Esther Ward and Mrs. Dorothy Norvel; program, Mrs. Ruth Ellis; Mrs. Frank Thomas and Mrs. Roy Cagle.

The closing prayer was by Rev. Moore. Refreshments were served to the seven members and four visitors. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Roy Cagle.

Pansy Garden Club Meeting
The Pansy Garden Club which is made up of sixth graders of Oglesby School, held their first meeting of the year Monday, Sept. 30, in the school lunch room. Mrs. Coy Breeding, sponsor of the club presented certificates of award to the winners in the Bird Poster Contest which was conducted last spring under the auspices of the Federation of Garden Clubs. Sixth graders who received mention were: Michael Poole and Jacky Lloyd.

The officers for the new year were announced by Miss Kathleen Broach, sixth grade teacher. They were: President, Jacky Lloyd; vice president, Buddy Sprague; secretary, Betty Sue McKenzie; song leader, Brenda Evans; pianist, Bill Land.

Mr. Breeding introduced Mrs. Lahroy Spates, guest speaker, who conducted a study on flower arrangements. And later, under the direction of Mrs. Breeding and Mrs. Spates the club members made triangular arrangements. The children were given favors of bubble gum and also violet plants for their home gardens. Sherry Burke is the reporter.

a Chinese bartender, a policeman's widow, a teacher a secretary and a delicatessen ownerman — surely the most oddly assorted group ever to invest in a movie.

No salaries have been paid yet to actors, author, cameraman or technicians. Seehy and back-ground were borrowed. Green-wich Village friends loaned their apartments for interior shots.

The city of New York also came to the rescue of a young man trying to make good the hard way. It loaned him a subway train and a fire boat. It also sent two detectives who questioned him for five hours because he hadn't obtained a permit to stage a spectacular rooftop gullfight.

"We were so short-staffed that I had to do the makeup and undressing myself," said Chambers. "I even had to sew a bra into the negligee of one actress, which is a pretty unusual chore for a producer."

He figures that if he can sell the picture for $100,000 all his investors will get their money back and all salaries will be paid. That will leave him nothing for himself.

"But the experience will have been worth it," he said. "I think I've proved that even Hollywood can turn out acceptable movies for no more than $100,000 in five weeks — if they are planned well."

There has been one other result. Several of the actors already have found their work with Chambers served as a stepping stone to other jobs.

Apparently Mass

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 3 — Threats of a mass student walk-out today marked the seventh day of Central High School's integration.

School authorities warned that any student who left classes would be disciplined.

Two Negro boys were roughed up by white students inside the school yesterday, classmates and school authorities said. Schoolmen said no great physical harm was done and three white students were suspended.

Gov. Orval Faubus received an ovation from a crowd of 8,000 last night at the Arkansas Livestock Exposition here. It was a surprise visit.

He presented rodeo stars Gene Autry and Gail Davis with honorary state awards and made a brief speech. He did not touch on the integration trouble.

Twenty-four Little Rock business and civil leaders signed a statement last night calling for peaceful compliance with court-ordered integration.

A consulting engineer for industries seeking new plant locations said the governor's actions in the controversy have cost Arkansas thousands of jobs. He is Dr. Charles H. Carpenter of Little Rock.

High-level efforts for a solution to the troop and integration problems remained stalemated although some mediation efforts continued.

Faubus stood pat on his statement concerning the most promising compromise plan yet advanced.

His wording in reply to the plan was rejected by President Eisenhower, who is effect then told federal troops to remain stationed at the troubled high school.

The president has accused the governor of inflaming white segregationists by stationing the Arkansas National Guard at the school Sept. 2 with orders to keep Negroes out despite federal court orders that the school be integrated.

The Guard was withdrawn Sept. 20 after a federal injunction against the interference was issued.

Integration began with the first classes held after federal troops arrived. Nine Negro students entered and have attended classes each school day since.

The collapsed compromise was worked out by the President and Gov. Faubus together.

Under this proposal, regular troops would have been withdrawn and the federalized National Guard returned to Faubus' control.

In return, the negotiators expected a statement from Faubus that he would prevent any obstruction of federal integration orders.

Eisenhower said it did not provide the assurances he wanted.

Frank Baue, an aide to the Southern governors, flew here yesterday and conferred with Faubus, then left Little Rock. Neither man would reveal what they discussed, but one source said nothing came of the meeting.

Two of the Negro boys at Central High were struck with fists and kicked yesterday, two white students reported. Neither was injured and they were rescued. It was the second day of "corridor incidents."

The two white teen-agers told reporters they have been suspended from school. They refused to reveal their names.

School Supt. Virgil F. Blossom confirmed this incident in part and said three boys were suspended.

"I have reports from school officials of some crowding, pushing and jeering," Blossom said at a press conference. There was no physical harm to anyone.

One of the boys who was suspended said, "We wanted to make it so miserable they wouldn't want to go to the school."

The suspended youths, both 15, are sophomores. Both are slightly built with blond hair and freckles. They talked freely with newsmen.

The youths said they chased the two Negroes "from one end of the school to the other," knocked schoolbooks from their hands and kicked them when they bent over to retrieve the books. They said from 50 to 100 boys were in the pursuing crowd.

Mrs. L. C. Bates, Arkansas president of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, denied that the two Negroes were chased and said the incident was not as serious as pictured by the two white teenagers. She said conditions for the Negroes actually improved over the previous day.

Students said that after the incident, soldiers formed a circle around the nine Negroes whenever they moved through the corridors.

Troops have guarded the Negroes inside Central High ever since they first entered under military guard Sept. 25.

The National Guard, now under United States Army control, took over Central High guard duty, inside and out, this week during the crucial hours of classes.

Previously, troops of the 101st Airborne Division were on guard during critical times.

Bobcats Meet a Strong Texarkana Team Friday

Hope Bobcats will tangle with Texarkana Friday night on the Hazarback gridiron, for the first time since 1953. That year, the Miller county lands whipped Hope 55 to 7.

They also did it in 1952, 34-0, in 51, 13-0, in '50, 25 to 24. The Bobcats won in 1949, 7 to 0, when Mitchell LaGrone racked up the touchdown and Edsall Nix kicked the extra point.

The Razorbacks' record this season gave them a won one and lost 2 standing. Atlanta Texas beat them 10 to 18 and Texarkana, Texas run over for a 41 to 19 tally. The Razorbacks routed Magnolia 25-7.

It is reported that six or seven of their starters are out with the flu, but may see action by Friday night. The Bobcats came out of the Smackover fracas in pretty good shape according to Coach Turpin. Center Lynn Wiggins suited up yesterday after a two day layoff, full back Tommy Polk has been working out every day, even though he left the Buckaroo game in the third period, following a head on collision with a Smackover back.

Starting for the Cats will be Franks and May at ends, Weisenberger and Chambliss at tackles, Porterfield and Thurman at guards and Wiggins at center. Watkins will go at quarterback, Polk at fullback and Boothe and Crahn at halfbacks.

Expected to see action also are: Hatfield, Eddie and Jack King, Bill Hairr, Terry Thurman, Bill Butler, Adams, Rowe, Turner, Duke, Morris, Embry, Bryan, Formby and Montgomery.

The Bobcats have a 2-1 record with victories over Stamps and Smackover and a loss to DeQueen. Next Friday night, the Crossett Eagles come to Hammons Stadium for an all-important conference till which could decide the district championship. Crossett beat Magnolia 7-6 last week.

Should Shantz subdue the Braves, following Whitey Ford's five-hill 3-1 triumph for New York the Yankees could conceivably sweep the set in four straight. Should the Braves even the so-called winner, Lew's best pitches down and drag-out seven games.

The Braves were nervous and restrained in the opener. They didn't hit their fielding wasn't sharp and they didn't play alert, heads-up ball. The Yankees outthrew them outfielded them, outpitched them and outthought them. Yet the Braves weren't exactly outclassed. Certainly the Yankees didn't overpower them. They just did everything a little bit better than the Braves.

Warren Spahn, who was batted out in the sixth inning to suffer the loss may have sounded the keynote for his team when he remarked in the clubhouse after the game: "The Yankees showed us they were human too. They didn't exactly roll over us. We were in the game all the way."

If Manager Fred Haney was discouraged he failed to show it. "We have no excuses," he said. "We got beat that's all. We had several opportunities, but we just didn't hit enough. The Yankees can be beaten. I'm still confident we'll win."

Haney was banking on Burdette, second only to Spahn during the Braves stretch run in September. The slender 30-year-old Virginian is an experienced pitcher even though he never before has appeared in a World Series. A 17-game winner, Lew's best pitches are a curve and a slider. He pitches something like Spahn who gave up seven of the nine Yankee hits before leaving "underfire" in the Yankees' two-run rally in the sixth.

For Shantz as well as Burdette, this was serious assignment No. 1. The little southpaw, acquired in a trade with Kansas City last February earned his shot at Milwaukee with an 11-5 record and an earned run average of 2.44, lowest in the majors. The 5-7, 145-pounder also relies on breaking stuff, slow curves, screwballs and knucklers.

Tickets, $4.08; Freight, $4.34; Officials: C. Bradford, $8.00; L. C. Donaldson, $8.00; C. Smith, $8.00; L. Rogers, $8.00; Charles Gough, $7.50; Ed Trotter, $2.50; Bus $2.00; Guarantee (McRae High School) $50.00; Bus to Pine Bluff, $128.72; State Dues, $15.00; Total: $1360.13; Balance Indebtedness $941.48.

Obituary Funeral services for Mrs. Ivey Wesson will be held Saturday, Oct. 5, at 2:00 p.m. at the St. Paul Methodist Church, two miles east of Nashville, Hicks Funeral Home Inc., in charge.
